

Conservation School

Tuesday, February 18th
@ SOMC Friends Center

The Details—

Where—SOMC Friend's Center
1202 18th St, Portsmouth, OH 45662

When—Tuesday, February 18, 2020
6:00—9:00 pm

Food—The evening will start out with a simple soup and sandwich dinner.

Cost—Adults $10

$5 for Farm Bureau Members
Kids 12 and under are FREE

*Must Pre-Register by Thursday February 13th

— Register online at <https://forms.gle/65sXd4RDcSVCKLZq6>
or by calling 740-286-4598

Session Topics and Speakers—

Beekeeping
-Wyatt Bates

Canning & Preserving
-Treva Williams, OSU Extension

Raising Mushrooms
-Julie Powell Albright, More Than Morels

Maple Syrup Making
-Matt Taylor, Camp Oyo Ranger

Organic Gardening
-Kevin & Barbara Bradberry

Salve Making
-Brenda Wilson, Adams County Herb Guild

*Youth attendees can join the Kids Zone for Fun Activities with FFA Students

Winners!

Each session will have a raffle for the attendees to win tools, books, gift certificates and more!

Some of the BIG prizes this year include:

Beginner Bee Hive Kit, 23 Quart Pressure Canner, Hand-Sculptured Mushroom and Mushroom Spawn Kit, Maple Syrup Beginner Kit, Compost Wizard, Salves & Salve Making Items and even more.

Not only can you gain the knowledge but you just might win the tools to get you started!

Interested in starting a small homestead or farm?

Looking to improve your knowledge and skills to benefit your existing operation?

Are you just wanting to learn something new?

We have that!

Join Scioto County's Conservation District and the Scioto County Farm Bureau for this amazing opportunity!

Come learn from local leaders and connect with others in your community with similar interests.

This event is a popular one so don't delay in registering for your spot.